• When is communion and how is it served?

We serve communion on the first Sunday of the month at our morning services. All people are welcome to take communion at the Lord's table—no matter their history, denomination, or creed. Ushers guide people by row to come to the altar, kneel, and receive the elements. You may remain at the altar to pray, and then return to your seat as you desire.

• Will I have to say anything, sign anything, or give anything?

While we hope you will feel welcomed at White Bluff UMC, rest assured that you won't be put on the spot. Though we receive an offering from our church family, we don't want anyone to feel obligated to give. We like to collect some basic information from people on our attendance registration log, (located at the end of each pew), but if you'd prefer not to, that's fine. If you sign in and leave contact information, one of us will give you a call or drop you a note to thank you for coming and see if you have any questions about our church.

• What if I have problems hearing the sermon?

We have assistive listening devices available in the entry to the sanctuary for anyone who needs them. If you need assistance, please see an usher or hostess.

• Is there an opportunity to meet people?

Yes! We serve coffee and donuts at "The Connection Café" at 10:40 a.m. (immediately following the 9:30 service) in Horton Hall. Upon leaving the sanctuary, turn right and follow the crowd down the covered walkway. Horton Hall will be on your left after entering the next building.

- Do you have a nursery for my children?

Yes! Nursery is available for infants and toddlers. The nursery is located in the Sunday school wing, rooms 12 & 15. (See facility guide below) We practice a "Safe Sanctuaries" policy which means that all infant, children, and youth workers have undergone background checks and specific training.

- Do you have Children's Church?

Yes! After the "Children's Sermon", children are invited to attend Children's Church. (Upstairs, behind the choir.) Under the direction of our Children's Minister, volunteers lead children in a Biblically based lesson and activity. Children return to the sanctuary at the end of the service.

- Can my children stay with me while I worship?

Yes! Your infants and children are very welcome in our sanctuary. We love to see families worshipping together. Nursery & Children's Church options are provided to give you a choice and to provide the most comfortable worship atmosphere for your family.

- What about Sunday School / Small Groups?

We have small groups for all ages meeting at 11:00 a.m. every Sunday. One adult class meets at 8:30. You'll probably get invited to one during the "Connection Café". Groups meet in the rooms shown in the facility guide below.
